

WHY SHOULD YOU
BECOME A MEMBER OF
CHRISTCHURCH CITY
LIBRARIES?

I like to spend my free time...

FAMILY FOCUS

Enjoy free or low cost programmes and events! You could even research your family history online.

THE BOOK LOVER

Enjoy our wide selection of eBooks, eAudiobooks and hardcopy books.

THE GAMER

Play for hours with eResources and games for kids, or even learn a new language online with Mango Languages.

SOUND BITE CONSUMER

Relax with our wide selection of free eMagazines or read one of 2,200+ newspapers with PressDisplay.

MOVIE CONNOISSEUR

From arthouse flicks to blockbusters, libraries have a diverse range of DVDs to choose from.

THE MUSIC LOVER

Access free streaming tracks from many diverse music databases online!

Discover, connect and play at your new local!

Christchurch City Libraries holds an exciting collection of traditional and digital resources to help you relax and unwind in your spare time. If you're a newcomer to Christchurch, we can even provide useful tools and advice to help you get settled in our city.

Some of our services...

- The latest professional and leisure magazines available online to download and keep for free. We subscribe to everything from Forbes to New Zealand Home and Garden to Rolling Stone.
- eBooks and eAudio books
- Daily international and national newspapers available online
- Standards
- Free online language courses. In particular, we hold a special collection of English Language Skills books
- Access to free streaming music eResources
- Access to New Zealand Family History eResources. There is also a free beginner's guide to help you get started
- Popular DVDs and CDs
- Over 1 million books in many different languages and genres
- Gaming consoles
- Fun, free family activities and children's storytimes
- Regular community events.

Christchurch City Libraries

Telephone: 941 7923. Email: library@ccc.govt.nz
Or visit our website: christchurchcitylibraries.com