

RDU LIVE TO AIR

A performance by a local Christchurch musician

free

Special Exhibitions Hall, Canterbury Museum ,
Saturday 21 May, 12pm

THE WESTMORELANDERS

Featuring ukulele, bass ukulele and guitar playing a wide variety of songs from traditional folk to popular hits.

free

Te Hāpua: Halswell Centre, Saturday 21 May, 2pm

CARMEL COURTNEY

A multi-instrumentalist, composer, arranger and producer, Carmel is one of the city's most renowned and beloved performers. This gig is an absolute must-attend for all music lovers!

free

South Library, Sunday 22 May, 1pm

CHRISTCHURCH EAST KAPA HAKA

Central Library Peterborough, Thursday 26 May, 10am

free

NATURAL MAGIC UKULELE PIRATES

The ever-popular family favourites!

free

Shirley Library, Saturday 28 May, 11.30am

RDU LIVE GIG!

Featuring Scythes, Transistors, Salad Boys
and The Bats

Canterbury Museum, Saturday 28 May From 7pm

Tickets available via dashtickets.co.nz

ALTERNATIVE RADIO: RDU98.5FM SINCE 1976

Celebrate 40 years of iconic Christchurch radio station, RDU98.5FM in a new exhibition at Canterbury Museum. 18 March - 14 August 2016.

LOVE MUSIC? LOVE LIBRARIES!

Christchurch City Libraries has over 20,000 borrowable music LPs, CDs and DVDs as well as thousands of music scores, sheet music and music-focused magazines and books. The network also offers free music streaming services as well as other resources for music lovers and learners alike. Visit christchurchcitylibraries.com/music

NZ MUSIC MONTH STORYTIMES

Join us for stories, rhymes and fun musical times!
Drop into your local library for extra-special storytimes throughout May, including interactive musical crafts. Visit christchurchcitylibraries.com for more details.

GIG GUIDE

SWEET GIGS ACROSS THE CITY
BY LOCAL MUSICIANS.

RDU LIVE TO AIR

A performance by a local Christchurch musician.

free

Special Exhibitions Hall, Canterbury Museum
Sunday 1 May, 12pm

NZ MUSIC MONTH LAUNCH: KANE STRANG

Make sure you start off NZ Music Month the right way! Dunedinite Kane Strang will be bringing the tousled charm of his off-kilter indie-rock songs, from his (pitchfork certified) album Blue Cheese, to the Gallery for the evening. Catch him now before he makes like Marlon Williams and heads overseas! Support from Candice and Jack. The Yealands Wine Bar will be serving up Peter Yealand's wines and Three Boys Brewery beer for the evening. To buy tickets and for more info visit: www.christchurchartgallery.org.nz/events

$15

Christchurch Art Gallery, Sunday 1 May, 7pm, All ages event.

Kane Strang, image credit Loulou Callister-Baker

ROGER FROM KBB MUSIC

A Jazz performance.

free

Hornby Library, Monday 2 May, 2.30pm

CANDICE MILNER

Come and enjoy a performance by Candice Milner, a young folk artist from Lyttelton who has been singing and writing songs since she was 14.

free

Shirley Library, Friday 6 May, 4pm

Candice Milner, image credit Justyn Rebecca Denney Strother

HALSWELL COMMUNITY CHOIR

Singing a wide variety of music from pop tunes to classical choral.

free

Te Hāpua: Halswell Centre, Saturday 7 May, 1pm

JENNINE BAILEY - WITH ACCOMPANIST DOUG CANARD PLAYING GUITAR

A Jazz performance.

free

Fendalton Library, Saturday 7 May, 2pm

JOHN CHRISSTOFFELS

John demonstrates the Theremin, an unusual and eerie instrument. The sound of this instrument was made popular in the Beach Boys' song 'Good Vibrations'. The audiences can have a go trying it out too! John will also be performing with Motte (aka Anita Clark), who plays beautiful ambient neo-classical violin.

free

Shirley Library, Saturday 7 May, 2pm

ROGER FROM KBB MUSIC

Roger will be bringing in a key board and instruments for a hands-on session.

free

Hornby Library, Monday 9 May, 3.30pm

ROCKERS OF AGES

This group sing songs from around the world as well as fun and funky songs from the last five decades in harmony.

free

Linwood Library, Tuesday 10 May, 10.30am

PAPANUI HIGH SCHOOL

Papanui Library, Tuesday 10 May, 12.25pm

free

BISHOPDALE PRIMARY SCHOOL KAPA HAKA GROUP

Papanui Library, Thursday 12 May, 12pm

free

CAPTAIN KINA AND MOLLY MAWK CHILDREN'S MUSIC SHOW

An interactive show of traditional and original New Zealand folk/pop/childrens' songs, including a demonstration for children with a range of instruments and how they work (the mandolin, bouzouki accordion and more).

free

Shirley Library, Saturday 14 May, 11am

ANNE-MAREE THOMAS WITH ACCOMPANIST WADE SLOPER PLAYING GUITAR

Fendalton Library, Saturday 14 May, 12pm

free

RDU LIVE TO AIR

A performance by a local Christchurch musician.

free

Special Exhibitions Hall, Canterbury Museum, Saturday 14 May, 12pm

JOHNATHON LE COCQ AND TESSA WHITE

Playing traditional Irish music with fiddle and guitar along with American fingerstyle guitar pieces.

free

Central Library Peterborough, Saturday 14 May, 12pm

ROBERT TAIT APOLLO QUARTET

South Library, Saturday 14 May, 2pm

free

WAIMARI SCHOOL

Papanui Library, Tuesday 17 May, 1.30pm

free

ROCKERS OF AGES

These groups sing songs from around the world.

free

Shirley Library, Wednesday 18 May, 2.30pm

HORNBY HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Hornby Library, Thursday 19 May, 2pm

free

ANDREW SCOTT SINGER/ SONGWRITER AND MULTI- INSTRUMENTALIST

Performing traditional and original New Zealand folk/pop songs.

free

Shirley Library, Friday 20 May, 4pm