My dream library exists in the Mobile Bus Service which I use because of my disability.

What I get through this service is helpful, warm & friendly personalised assistance. Through the librarians getting to know me & I them my reading needs are more than aptly met & my knowledge & education increases. I'm also extremely grateful that I can order books with no charge. There is only one thing missing - i.e. access to the University & Medical libraries through the Public Library. Thank you.
