

With Christchurch City Libraries we've come a long way...

- First qualified female librarian (1920)
- First original art collection for public loan (1955)
- First computerised lending system (1975)
- First Books for Babies programme (1990)
- First public library in Aotearoa with a website (1995)
- First internet access to library catalogue (1995)
- National Award for Architecture - New Brighton Library (2000)
- Best Place to Work Finalist - Unlimited Magazine (2003)
- Supreme Award for Architecture - South Christchurch Library (2004) ...

Thanks Christchurch, together we've enjoyed 150 years of innovation. Here's to 150 more.

Visit library150.com or your local library today

