WW100 Soldier Search

Christchurch City Libraries, CCL-Tench-042A

Christchurch
City Council

Commemorating 100 years since the First World War, students will have an opportunity to use fantastic electronic databases to search for soldiers and build a profile of those who served to protect the nation. Students will participate in a great range of activities, using varied technologies and software to create their own multi-media presentation.

This programme will have six sessions

Where: South Learning Centre,
66 Colombo Street, Christchurch 8022

When: Tuesdays 9–10.30am
28 October–2 December

Ages: Years 7–8
