Christchurch City Libraries from fact to fiction more than you think...

CHRISTCHURCH

CITY COUNCIL · YOUR PEOPLE · YOUR CITY

from fact to fiction...

Take time to browse through our many collections.

- Fiction – from the serious to the hilarious, from crime stories to classics.
- Non-fiction – explore the world, grow a business or a tree, try a new hobby, further your studies.
- Biographies – famous figures from the past and present.
- Newspapers – local, regional and international newspapers.
- Magazines – specialist and popular titles.
- Large print – fiction and non-fiction books for those unable to read normal print easily.
- Talking books – a wide range of fiction and factual books recorded on tape.
- Adult literacy and ESOL – a special collection of books to help improve reading and writing skills.

Need other information?

- Information files – hot topics and information you may not find elsewhere.
- Local electoral rolls – current rolls are held at all libraries.
- National electoral rolls – past and present rolls are available at the Central City Library.
- Directories – telephone (national and international), trade and business.
- Motor manuals – for repair and maintenance work on your car.

Look out for our monthly magazine, Bookmark, which highlights new titles including CDs, tapes and videos, and features events in the library and literary worlds.

And sharpen your business focus with Connect, our monthly newsletter containing current business trends and book reviews.
