I beg to notify you that the above Library have put up two parcels of Books (47 Books) for use of the men in the Forts also three parcels of Periodicals for use of the men in the Expeditionary Forces.

The writer rang up Major Medding informing him that the parcels had been left in the Linwood Council yards next to Library where they were to be taken delivery of. I hope that you have received them all right & that they will be of service to the men.

I Remain
Yours Respectfully
