Dear Sir

I beg to remind you that we have Five Books against you in our Register which have been out for a considerable time the writer would be glad if you will please return them. I also wish to remind you that your subscription was due on June 15th 1914.

I very much regret to hear that you have been seriously ill & hope that you are now restored to health

I Remain

Yours Respectfully
W Huggley
