In conclusion Sir we have received a great heritage from the hand of these gentlemen & ~~these~~ ~~Successors~~ following them, that heritage brings with it Equally great responsibilities & the future of our Library lies in our hands & the hands of our Successors.

If ^{we} are as faithful, & as wise as they have proved, in fulfilling those duties, then with confidence can we believe & say that great ~~as~~ ~~has been~~ the Success of our library, in the past;
 Still greater success awaits it in the future.
