

DECEMBER, 1915.

Saturday 11

Went into London by 11 train from Epsom with another chap I know. Had lunch at Victoria Buffet went to record office and got an order on Berkeleys for my boots; went along and got a pair. Took a bus from Victoria Stn. to the Zoo. Spent about 3 hours there, took bus to the nearest tube Stn. took tube to Piccadilly was changing at Baker St. Had tea at a flash restaurant in Leicester Sq. walked past Trafalgar Sq. took bus <sup>out</sup> to Westminster to Victoria Stn. had a good walk round some of the streets, & caught 6.15 train to Epsom. Arrived home tired out

Sunday 12

Snowed for an hour this morning; cleared up after dinner. Went out to a horse for tea. Very homely people. Stayed till about 9.0 a week. Lovely clear night enjoyed the walk home. Rules in regard to ~~trains~~ <sup>trains</sup> are being made very strict

DECEMBER, 1915.

Monday 13

My mate & I walked into Epsom after tea. Spent an hour or so at the club had supper & walked back to camp. Received set of badges to day. I applied for them at the record office last Thursday

Tuesday 14

Rain again today. Went out this afternoon to see the people whose horse I was at on Sunday. Made me very welcome, stayed till after 9.0 clock. That was unexpected this morning by our officer; he is going that some round every morning