ADDINGTON

WAIHO

GRAHAM'S HERMITAGE

BAKERS HOOKER COPLAND

TORRES

TASMAN LENDENFELT

will make several journeys into day & bring up a big load. Load.
When I got further South it was almost more noticeable farmers who began had to drive sheep 50 miles to a railway yard in HOKITIKA 50 miles & find several big towns even if they did not meet the market. Little flock & flooded river had any travel worn animals left to sell in the Market-Had any several hundred Small population. Most flocks were were loading trucks in double decker lorries in the afternoon which drove them up to HOKITIKA where they were fed on the train & sold next morning at ten yard. Addaway's yards & freezing works near Christchurch. on the other side of the Island.
Ha On Dec 15 I went down the Grahams very comfortable Hotel at the Waiho which was the very head Seaside for the next two or three months. There I was with old friends & had many a chat over old times.
I repaired a trip over Seaburn Saddle to the Hermitage back up the Hooker & the GARDINER Hut & by Baker Saddle up to Hooker & the Copeland which had been my first trip in the New Zealand Alps over thirty years ago. earlier.
I had a very jolly trip up the Fox Caumpig near our old site, we made an attempt on Mt Torres which failed partly owing to bad weather, but I found that I could not so the pass that was necessary & I am up an attempt on Mt Tasman over Tinderfell-between there