Hymn.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home;

Beneath the Shadow of Thy Throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine Arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone:
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard whilst troubles last
And our eternal home. Amen.

Lesson.

Romans viii, 31-end.

Anthem.

Happy and blest are they who have endured, for though the body dies, the soul shall live for ever.—[Mendelssohn.]

Address by the Lord Bishop.

Hymn.

Jesus lives, no longer now
Can thy terrors, death, appal us;
Jesus lives, by this we know
Thou, O grave, canst not enthrall us.
Alleluia!

Jesus lives! henceforth is death
But the gate of life immortal;
This shall calm our trembling breath
When we pass its gloomy portal.
Alleluia!

Jesus lives! for us He died;
Then, alone to Jesus living,
Pure in heart may we abide
Glory to our saviour giving.
Alleluia!

Jesus lives, our hearts know well
Nought from us His love shall sever;
Life, nor death, nor powers of hell
Tear us from His keeping ever.
Alleluia!

Jesus lives! to Him the Throne
Over all the world is given;
May we go where He is gone,
Rest and reign with Him in Heaven.
Alleluia! Amen.

Here follow Prayers and Intercessions.

Thanksgiving for Anzac Day.

O Lord God of our Fathers, as we have sought thy mercy for the days to come, so do we render unto thee most hearty thanks for thy mercies already granted to us. We bless thee for the unity of our Empire, the freewill offering of her sons, the courage and loyalty of our soldiers and sailors. Especially, on this day, we thank thee for those who by great deeds of valour and endurance sustained the honour of their country. Accept their sacrifice, O Lord; let thy servants' blood that is shed be precious in thy sight; grant to the world that righteousness and peace for which they wrought and died; for the merits of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
