

XXVIII.

That any gentleman wishing to become a member of the Brigade, shall be proposed and seconded at a general meeting, and if a majority of votes are in his favour, he shall be declared elected.

XXIX.

That the keys of No. 1 Engine-house shall be kept at the office of Cookson, Bowler, and Co., by Mr. Thos. Anderson, Hereford-street, Mr. J. C. Angus, Cashel-street, and by the policeman on night duty. The keys of No. 2 Engine-house shall be kept by the man in charge of the engine, by Mr. Thos. Wilson, Colombo-street, and at the Police Station.

XXX.

That six runners be appointed, whose duty it shall be to arouse the members of the Brigade, on the alarm of fire, in their respective districts; then to proceed to the scene of the fire, and be under the orders of the officer in command.

Their services shall be rewarded by the payment of one shilling from each man they can find at home, on the alarm of fire, and they shall be provided with some distinctive mark or badge.

XXXI.

That none of the foregoing rules be altered or rescinded, unless by a majority of three-fourths of the members.
