Julia Hubrey A hare, a hound and shy mousey brown

There's a hare in the air, there's a hound on the ground, and watching them both is shy Mousey Brown...and so begins an enchanting adventure, complete with danger, silliness, bravery and romance. Mouse is tiny but bold, Hound is vast and menacing, Hare doesn't have a clue and, between them, someone has to come out on top.

Julie Hunt The coat

The Coat stood in a paddock at the end of a row of strawberries. It was buttoned up tight and stuffed full of straw and it was angry. 'What a waste of me!' it yelled. Then along came a man. 'I could do with a coat like that,' the man said. Together, swooping and swinging, they travelled to the Cafe Delitzia, and had the night of their lives. Illustrated by Ron Brooks.

Oliver Jeffers The moose belongs to me

Wilfred thinks he owns a moose, but does the moose know? And who is the old lady who calls him Rodrigo? A story set in sweeping landscapes.

Jon Klassen This is not my hat

From the creator of the bestselling and award-winning "I Want My Hat Back" comes a second wry tale. When a tiny fish shoots into view wearing a round blue top hat (which happens to fit him perfectly), trouble could be following close behind. So it's a good thing that enormous fish won't wake up. And even if he does, it's not as though he'll ever know what happened, will he?

Leonore Klein Henri's walk to Paris

A boy named Henri from the small city of Reboul, France decides to try to walk to Paris to see the sights, until he stops along the way to take a nap under a tree and loses his direction.

David LaRochelle It's a tiger!

A child imagines that he is in a story where he encounters a tiger at every turn. Will he be able to escape in the mountains? On an island? In a cave? A fail-safe read-aloud reminiscent of We're going on bear hunt.

Margaret Mahy The man from the land of Fandango (NZ)

The man from the land of Fandango is coming to pay you a call! He wears a hat with a tassel and a polka-dot tie - and he juggles and bounces and dances with bears, bison, baboons, kangaroos and even dinosaurs. He's wonderful and amazing - so watch out for him, and watch carefully - because he only appears every 500 years!

Margaret Mahy Mister Whistler (NZ)

Absentminded Mister Whistler always has a song in his head and a dance in his feet. In a rush to catch the train, he is so distracted he loses his ticket. Is it in the bottom pockets of his big coat or the top pockets of his jacket? Perhaps he slipped it into his waistcoat. Where is Mister Whistler's ticket? Illustrated by Gavin Bishop.

Douglas Melling Hugless Douglas and the big sleep

Douglas is very excited about Rabbit's sleepover, but he collects so many friends along the way that soon it's a big squash in Rabbit's small burrow! Can Douglas think of a way for them all to get some sleep?

Kate Messner Over and under the snow

Over the snow, the world is hushed and white, but under the snow is a secret world of squirrels and snowshoe hares, bears and bullfrogs, and many others who live outside in the woods during the winter.

Kyle Mewburn (NZ) Seesaw Po

Po the hippopotamus and his friends love the playground, even though Po is so big that he has trouble fitting on! In the end, however, his kindness to a tiny ant is repaid in an unexpected way.

Christoph Niemann That's how!

A very imaginative boy answers a girl's questions about how different kinds of vehicles work. Don't expect to find factual information here, but be prepared to laugh!

Alison Reynolds A year with Marmalade

When Maddy's family relocate for a year, she must leave behind her cat, Marmalade, and her best friend Ella. The story of the growing friendship between Marmalade and Ella is set against a backdrop of the changing seasons.

Michael Rosen Blue

One evening when Raffi can't sleep, a magical flying cat called Blue appears and takes him on an adventure through the night sky. The next day, Raffi feels a little bit different. He is happier, and has more confidence. He even finds himself reassuring his brother that walking home in the dark is no problem at all it's fun! Illustrated by Michael Foreman.

Michael Rosen Te haere ki te rapu pea/We're going on a bear hunt

The classic picture book has been translated into Te Reo Māori by Kawata Teepa!

Nick Sharratt My Mum and Dad make me laugh

Mum is crazy about spots, Dad loves stripes. No wonder they make their son laugh, mind you, they think that he's funny in his grey plain clothes. Packed with glorious patterns of stripes and spots, this book also contains a clue on each spread as to the nature of the little boy's obsession.

Bob Shea I'm a shark

A boastful shark is not afraid of anything, which impresses his underwater friends until they ask about spiders.
