In my dream library I would have....

- * Lots of bay windows with big comfy cushions where we could lie and read or draw or play games while Mum and Dad look for their books because they always take longer than us.

- * "Theme" corners based on different books, like a "Narnia" corner or a "Harry Potter" or a "Lizzie McGuire" corner and kids could pick which corner they want to sit in and have some of the theme story read to them.

- * The ceiling and walls would be painted really bright colours with big blackboards where kids could draw or write stories.
