

Christchurch Launch Event

New Zealand Music Month Opening
CPIT, Rakaia Centre Atrium, Madras Street
Tuesday 1 May, 5.30pm

Anika Moa
At 21, Auckland-born Anika Moa was the first unknown New Zealand artist to ever be signed to a major label (Atlantic). Not a bad start for the Christchurch-raised singer and songwriter. The common thread that ties her humble beginnings to the artist with four poignant and successful albums is her natural knack – an instinctive pop sensibility.

Also playing a ticketed show at Dux Live, 363 Lincoln Road
Wednesday 2 May
Tickets available from eventfinder.co.nz or at the venue

Hanna Harding
Hanna Harding or Aldous, is a small, awkward songwriter from the heart of the South Island. Her music is like a gentle sway in the wind, it invites all sorts of dreaming and longing. Hanna has been playing in and around Christchurch and Aotearoa with the likes of

The Unfaithful Ways, The Eastern and Delaney Davidson for yonks but is all about getting rich and famous in Auckland now. She's also real pretty and plays the guitar like Carlos Santana's aunty.

Nadia Reid
Nadia's soulful songs, vocal texture and strong performance presence have enabled her to carve a niche in the independent music scene, with regular performances and a fast growing following in New Zealand. Now based in Auckland, Nadia returns home to Christchurch to celebrate NZ Music Month with her band consisting of Ben Eldridge, Rich Densem and Joe McCallum. In June 2012 Nadia and special guests will embark on a 14 date New Zealand tour.

Tom Lark
With nowhere left to practice and record with his usual band after his routine rehearsal space was demolished in the earthquake, Lark found himself retreating to his bedroom. Rather than be discouraged by the setback, he instead discovered inspiration in the newfound restrictions and was soon penning new songs in a fresh voice and style. Armed with only this new set of songs, a defective laptop and whatever instruments he could lay his hands on, the Tom Lark EP was born.

Friday 4 May

Dylan Hawes
Dylan Hawes is a quirky bald singer songwriter from Christchurch who makes small songs into big stories that will leave you wondering and humming.

Friday 11 May

Graham Wardrop
Graham has been acclaimed as New Zealand's finest finger style guitarist. After 30 years in the professional arena, he is regularly called upon to give concert performances, play on television and studio recording sessions and hold workshops in advanced fingerstyle techniques for steel string guitar. Not only does Graham maintain a busy performance schedule, but he also handcrafts instruments on which he performs. He is a musician of great versatility and his love of balance, harmony and precision culminates in his richness of sound and a unique style of performance.

Amiria Grenell
Hailing from the iconic Grenell tribe, youngest member Amiria is a highly regarded singer-songwriter and recording artist. Her album Three Feathers recently won the 'Best Folk Album' Tui at the 2012 New Zealand Music Awards. Amiria's honest and innocent charm has captivated audiences and seen her release albums both as a solo artist and as a member of folk duo, Harriet and the Matches.

She has also just completed a tour of New Zealand and Melbourne with the iconic 16-piece band Fly My Pretties.
