|------------|---------------------------|-------------|
- The Dorcas Society provided assistance to organisations overseas and in NZ as well as providing clothing, material, patchwork quilts etc to families and the poor. The recipients did not necessarily attend church. At Christmas groceries, meat and cakes were given away. Membership of the society was exclusively women. The aim of the Dorcas Society was not just to dispense charity but also show a loving sympathetic understanding and to try to cheer up and uplift the people they were in contact with.
- A decision was made to put the Society in recess for five years from Jan. 1978 Mothers meetings were held weekly for prayer and fellowship. Membership was open to those who did not attend church.
