Messrs W R Smith, Rountree, Marshall, and others, thought that an entertainment would be the means of helping the library funds

Mr W McKinney offered to provide an entertainment which would not involve very heavy expenditure, and if the members helped to sell tickets no doubt a good return would be obtained, accepted with thanks.

After a general discussion on the best way to push along the claims of the library on the surrounding district, the meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the chair

Convened June 9, 1911 G. W. Rusteel
