EDITORIAL.

The Christmas season is almost here again, with its recurring problem of finding suitable gifts. We would again suggest to our members that a year's subscription to "Our Library" is an excellent way of expressing one's goodwill message.

We want more members, particularly during the summer months, when the usual seasonal decline in our membership is in evidence. Our subscribers may help the Library, show their appreciation of the Committee's work and earn the gratitude of their friends by giving effect to our suggestion.

A book is a popular gift at Christmas time, but a whole year's reading will surely be a more welcome present.

We have, on several occasions, asked our readers to express their views upon any matters connected with the library. The response to this request, during the past year, has been very slight. While this probably reflects a satisfied spirit, we would appreciate any suggestions that make for the better management of the

Our readers' opinions upon any matter relative to Library matters are welcomed.
