EDITORIAL

The passing days have brought us once again to the close of the year, and we take the opportunity of expressing the wish that the New Year may bring prosperity to all our subscribers.

The past twelve months has been memorable in more ways than one. World conditions have been fraught with difficulty and danger and our own Empire has faced unprecedented circumstances with that magnificent spirit that makes one feel proud to be British. Statesmanship of the highest order has commanded the respect and admiration of the world. In our own Dominion we have entered into a new order of things, politically and socially, and we await the outcome of our advanced legislation with equanimity, hoping that the new year may make the depression a mere memory, and that the unemployment problem may be a thing of the past.

The subject of Libraries and their control has received considerable attention, both nationally and locally, and it appears probable that the coming year will see some improvement in the library position in Christchurch. We in Linwood have endeavoured to serve our district faith-

Our readers' opinions upon any matter relative to Library matters are welcomed.
