Linwood Library Gazette

The Official Organ of the
Linwood Public Library

Vol. 2 May-June 1937 No. 8

The Public Library System of Christchurch, of which Linwood Library forms no mean part, is unique in New Zealand. The Canterbury Library is controlled by the Canterbury University College authorities and until quite recently received no financial assistance from the Christchurch City Council. The suburban libraries are controlled by independent bodies of voluntary workers, elected as committees by their respective subscribers, monetary grants being granted by the City Council. Each unit is self-contained and each has its own scale of charges for subscriptions. Rules and regulations are independently framed to suit local needs and each suburban library ploughs a lonely furrow in the vast field of literary wants. Much good work has been done in the past by these libraries and doubtless much will be done in the future, even under the present system; but when the day dawns, as eventually it must, upon a co-ordinated plan of library administration, then will Christchurch be able to look with pride upon its cultural attainments in the world of books.

Meanwhile, the subscription system of membership is supplying the readers of city and suburbia with literary fare for an absurdly low payment. In the case of

Our readers' opinions upon any matter relative to Library matters are welcomed.
