Linwood Library Gazette

The Official Organ of the
Linwood Public Library

Vol. 3 October, 1937 No. 1

This is the day of education. Our schools and colleges provide the youth of the land with a higher grade of education than ever before, fitting them with the necessary knowledge to face life's battle for existence. Matriculation is almost a necessity for the boy or girl to-day, if he or she wishes to obtain a position in the world of commerce.

Yet it cannot be said that, upon leaving school, the recipient of certificates or degrees has acquired more than the fundamentals of learning, for it is the great school of life itself that teaches us all, by experience, how to measure up to the highest standard of citizenship.

The greatest aid to one's education may be summed up in one word "Books." They are the universal medium of education whether in school or outside—books to find the facts behind the news reel or broadcast—books to fit us for a job, to help us find it or to keep us sane through unemployment—books to explain the economic picture and the world changing rapidly before our eyes—books for our children—books to enjoy.

To-day the books in our public libraries are helping to fill a great need, the growing hunger for books is becoming greater year by year and readers may be
