

made into the heart of Christchurch with a wide ditch on both sides, by which the houses were completely cut off and every inhabitant put to the necessity and expense of making a Bridge to his house.

Mr. Dobson moved that Mr. Godley's attention be called to the matter, with a view of ascertaining whether the road was being made in the manner most conducive to the interests of the Town.

This was agreed to and the meeting then dissolved.

W. H. T. A. M.