

The Vestry arranged transport for the visitors and did many of the "hard work jobs." Speeches were made by the Vicar, and the Revd. F. G. Brittan, Mr. R. Allan, Churchwarden, and Mr. Thos. Allen, whose memory carried him back to the days before the Church was built.

People will long remember this day for its happy spirit of fellowship, and the re-union of old friends.

---