

weighed at Wellington. July 1853
~~10.7~~
 10.7

Journal of a voyage from Port Cooper to England in 1853

May 18th Sailed from Port Cooper at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Barque Gwalior fine wind from the SW. with a boat of Capt Campbell went morning arrived in Wellington in the afternoon after a fine run of 23 hours 20th Walked about the town. heard the band of the 56th.

July. Monday 14th Left Barnett's Hotel and went on board the Barque "Lord Nelson". She belongs to the Southern Whale Fishing Comp. and has been out three years, the station is at the Duckland Islands of which place W. Endicott was Governor the Fishing did not answer so it is broken up and all the whips ordered home.