

foregoing diary. He came out to New Zealand in the Randolph, as a member of the Canterbury Association, therefore a Pilgrim, one of the passengers in The First Four Ships.

He married in 1854 Elizabeth Frances Hastings at Martley, Worcestershire.

Returning to New Zealand the same year, he founded Southbridge in the Ellesmere district, and the present family of Bridge of Canterbury.

Charles Joseph Bridge died at Homebrook, Southbridge in October 1876, as the result of an accident.

5. Clara. Married Captain Parr.

Had two sons - Walter and Claud.

Claud died young, unmarried. 1868.

Walter Parr died in 1899, leaving one child - John. The widow re-married in 1902; became Mrs Rees.

Clara - Mrs Parr, died at Cheltenham in and is buried at Clifton near Bristol.

6. Susan. Died unmarried in 1889. Buried at Clifton, near Bristol.