

JANUARY, 1916.

Friday 31

Arrived Glasgow about 8 a.m.
Took a room at Duncan's hotel had breakfast and set out for Loch Lomond with an Australian & met: Went out by tram, about 20 miles easting Andy 10th. Beautiful red line runs parallel with Clyde most of the way. Scenery very grand. Stayed at the loch about an hour and came back by train. Spent evening in town and waited up to see the New Year in, saw Andy this evening

Saturday 1

Got back to bed about 1 a.m.
Very little excitement over New Year. This morning got letter to say extension was not granted. After dinner went round to Mr. Wood's and went to see Galloway with Candy. Very beautiful place.
After tea we went for a walk and then back to Wood's where I spent the evening. Got back to hotel at 12 p.m. Sent P. Cards home

JANUARY, 1916.

Sunday 2

Left Glasgow by 9<sup>am</sup> 5<sup>5</sup> train Andy & John Wood came to see me off. Saw some fine country on the way down.
Arrived Bgham about 7<sup>30</sup> p.m.
Some of the girls met me. Went up to Mr. Tooth's, had supper and went round to Mr. Hill's.

Monday 3

Packed up ready for London in the morning. Went into town & called on V.
In the evening we went round to Mr. Tooth's and had a party. Will & his wife Jack and some more of my friends were there. Said goodbye about 12<sup>30</sup> and went back to Mr. Hill's Had a wire from Andy saying he had a week's extension