

JUNE, 1916.

Sunday 4

Church parade this morning.
Went to institute this evening
afternoon. On town picket
this evening.

Monday 5

Parade this morning.
Trench fatigue this evening.
Struck a rotten job outside
the firing line parapet.

Tuesday 6

Trench fatigue again to night.
Had to take two pumps
right up into the mushroom.
Enemy trenches very close.
Big bombardment started just as we were coming home. Noise was deafening. A good few shells burst close to us and scattered us with dirt. One struck the side of the sap just ahead of us. Very glad to get back to billets again.

Wednesday 7

Off all day. Heard that the Australians made a raid
last night and took some prisoners, also some of their flares, which have been wanted for a long time.
Trench fatigue again
to night.
