

June 22. 1886

My dear Sir

Mr. Moorehead
was so much hurried
and engaged up to the moment of his departure for Wellington that he was unable to ensure your note in writing. He asked me therefore to express his justification at the honor bestowed to him, which with much pleasure he will accept.

Yours truly,
G. S. Thompson