

Feb. March 1933 Skiing in Arlesheim

Feb. 22 I left Haringae at the 11 o'clock train, after having a boat pulled the day before & an x ray which showed that the dislocated bone in my jaw was not clearing up. I went to Detken & was tried on a soft my skiing coat in which I had had 3 ip fastenings put in the pockets. I had dinner with the Danish members of the S. H. at the Hotel Central Hotel & caught the 11 o'clock train from Victoria for Fochberg & down to Hagen.

Feb. 23 It was a pretty rough crossing, but I had a comfortable night. The ground was all white with snow, I passed Neuf & I was busy for 6. Dähl at 3.20 & caught a train in 1-3 which staying at the Hotel Stadt by Post in Waisachhausstrasse. Comfortable & cheap.

Feb. 24 I took my ski to Frijol (Lena) and binding found on Lena wandered around the shops & came at 9.14 & got dinner in town & got to Landrak at 9. I went to the Hotel Post.

Feb. 25 got to the 10 o'clock train up to Gallen. It was a better cross as the sun had not got down to the valley. At the Hotel Rosse 002 I got word that they had telegraphed that they had no room. However they promised us a room in the hotel that night. After dinner I went out to work rope, little & shed down. Edward & I were arrived at the 4.30 train. He got a room out.

Feb. 26 he went off after tea breakfast to the Alf Hotel, in the descent a heavy fall I broke a ski. Edward had a repair outfit. He went down to Kope & fixed the ski & came back very slowly as the front part of my ski was wobbling badly. However it held on till I got back just before 6. After some coffee I bought a pair of ash ski for 4.30 Schilling.

Feb. 27 he reported yesterday's run, Edward gave back the top again March 1 Ash breaking, I went to man may commenced, the seeds in the cloud had beautifully covered seeds, but not ash

Alf had a - Edward was on & climbed the Dreiloch Schige & I was down to Kope, & then returned together

March 2 he packed & got well to the Haringae slopes. Edward sent off his baggage at 11 o'clock when the dunnies were. We worked on ski & bought provisions.

March 3. Skied some. I took a parcel to carry my sack. We got off at 8.45 & got to the Madonnenhaus at 12.30 & had some food leaving at 1.30. I followed slowly after the others & got to the Breibadener Haus at 4.30. The run was pretty good.

March 4. A fine morning with cloud about, we got off about 10 & went up the left hand of the glacier. Drizzle came on however we got to the Feuerschnee & Camp at 1. It was a little cold & after a snack we returned got back to the Hotel at 2.45.

March 5. A better looking morning, we got off at 9 & were heading to the Vermaas-Funkel, but returned unexpectedly to get over to the junction in the afternoon, we packed & had lunch & then the snow came on.

March 6. About 6 miles of new snow had fallen, however we got off at 8.30 & got to the Obere Ochsenwies at 10.30. We started up the Dreiloch Schige Edward & I went to the Schanze. About 11.45 we set off down waiting for a guide to show the way then the ice fell. I had some delay helped & saw. My ski began to ice & I had to slip & was down. Jammed at 12.45. Had some food Edward went up again for the run back. Met two big fishermen & Guinness & Deukans both on heavy men.

March 7. Offer of rope to Chalauscher. he had to take me ski off for the first week. Edward went up to the top of the Aepfelmatten, I turned back. He returned on the same side to the Feuerschnee & had a half of some food. He left at 12 & got to the Hotel some after 4. he found after work that a Datchman had been ill on a climb & died that night in his sleep.

March 8 Off at 10 in thick fog & sligh snow. he followed some tracks which led us nearly to the Feuerschnee & Ditschel mit Bergschnee.
