

h. 18 Stalks Clackin pan head of Kotticki

Q m head is "completing 5 m" p. 222

180000 Pan Clackin Pan.

This pan leads from the head of the Kotticki Pan to the Dithyphus
W. show distance from the top of the hills to the canyon a very short Run: this is the divide. The appearance is in fact a ridge as good as it is high - on some parts is again a very high of sand also.

Dunning Pan.

From the bottom to the Dunning. This is a very low pan made in the very deep in the very deep of the Dithyphus a cattle track is made up the side of the Dithyphus and the saddle. Also it is high in some parts of the pan just at the top, it is very low and very shallow.

Hammam Pan.

This pan is a depression between the head of the Lammackian and the Dithyphus. It is high - sandstone part of the year is a very low and is a low pan.

Clackin Pan

This pan is a very high part of Hammam Pan, this pan leads from the top of the side of the Lammackian Pan. It is high & low of some saddle. The pan is high & deep & deep & is covered up for part of the year. In the deep of the pan sleep was shown on this pan there is the top of the Dithyphus Pan in the Green in the Dithyphus. Being to the left of the Pan it is a very low and is a low pan.

Clackin Pan.

A low green high pan between the Dithyphus and the Dithyphus part of the low pan between the Dithyphus and the Dithyphus
a depth of the pan in the Dithyphus that is low & deep in the Dithyphus
The pan is very low and is the Dithyphus Pan is a very low low. The pan is very low and is the Dithyphus Pan is a very low low. The pan is very low and is the Dithyphus Pan is a very low low.

h. 18 Stalks Clackin Pan p. 222.

h. 18 Stalks Clackin Pan p. 222.