Friday 1 January 1897 =

Sports at Dunsandel a Holy day of obligation

Wool Sales on the 5 = closes on 5

Kept today a Holy day as Charles won some Races. Matt. very near Dan went 3/4 of his 1/2 mile the Company he was in two fast. Every thing went off well - will please those friends of Dunsandel. Comm. the deserves credit for what they have done in that way.

The 2 Julia's & Kate up there in Saturday: Blowing heavily w. easter had me ather on crops. all ground-drying up. mail awful bad

Crop growing on middle land is very uncertain to depend on The drink is cleared out. to rise not one will prosecute him for his little travelties now on the public - etc. etc.

Mrs. Brothers Measons kept him 1000 - 8000

If he was a poor Catholic he would get 3 or 4 years - such is the Secular Society League

Sunday 3 Blowing south today thank God this is a good deal better than the bad w. wester

11 o'clock Mass. today

Sunday 3 of January 1897 - Crops getting ripe very fast. Just now

Splendid day thank God

Monday 4. Reaping oats very poor crop

Daisy Machine Cut 8 well

I believe she will now get in blowing Easter. Not bad in Tuesday 5 in Town. Mr. Holly Junos.

John O. Boyle & the boys

I think me done very well so far. The Rev. Mother the C. Church is a practical Business Lady. This is good looking woman

Little Mary. Egan is Rev. Sub-Mother this is good. It is in deed a grand thing for the people to have such institutions in their midst. The Rev. Mother part when she her to R. some her fresh friends and get another hundred she will get the money all right

Still blowing north w. wester drying up. Every thing grass & crops in Big fire across the Rake a garden farm. about 700 hundred pounds was burned got letter from Father Craddock C. Galway Ireland stating that John & Martin Conroy & Vincent

Hynds got the money. he thanked me for looking after the Estate so well
