Monday 22. March 1897,

Very warm today. Boys ploughing stubble land next Top Road.

Tuesday 23: a good day rather dry just now.

Mr. John Jay very bad.

Dr. D. Renzie attending him. Costiveness of bowels. & the dry diseases.

Blood leaving the feet. Many bad signs. I was down there today.

Wed 24: a good day but rather dry. I hope to find some rain before long.

I heard Wilsons son that went home to be a doctor is sick in the Hospital since he landed. Bad job for the young fellow. I believe old Wilson is going home to see about him.

Every body about very near home thrashing. Just now

They next ved house - today... dry weather just now - blowing W. & West

Thursday 25 - March 1897.

Blowing W. - West of grade Cold. Influenza about - just now.

Mary Not-Well - Some of the others

Boys COMMENCED ploughing next winter in Canada on old ground

Friday 26 of March - sold some little pigs 14 pigs - at 3-9 each -

2 sows I bought. 2-7-6 for each

Went down to town - done no good. - old traps selling the price of new ones.

Saturday 27: - Came home from town today - John Jays funeral takes place next Monday. at 11 o'clock

Sunday 28 rather dull looking ~ 9-10 o'clock Mass. at Leicester

Several people from Ashburton down at Leicester for the funeral to morrow. "Good bye ashburton time to come"

lots of people down at Jays today
