HORSES.

In all entries of Horses the breeder's name must be mentioned, if known; if not known, the fact must be stated at the time of entry for insertion in the Catalogue of Entries. If omitted, the words "breeder unknown" will be inserted.

The Judges are directed to award Prizes only to Horses which they consider sound in classes marked with an asterisk (*); and in the other classes they are directed to award Prizes only to such animals that they consider free from hereditary unsoundness. In Classes 36, 37, 42, and 44, they are directed to take into consideration principally weight-carrying capability, combined with activity; and in Ladies' Hacks, general appearance, and paces best adapted for carrying a lady with ease and safety.

Fees—Each Entry of Horses: Members or Subscribers of £2—10s.; all others, £1.
