

sale are carefully looked after, and every effort is made to carry out clients' instructions. Rent collecting and arranging mortgages is also another branch that receives special attention. Messrs. Tonks, Norton and Co. are sole agents in Canterbury for the well-known Tonisca pianos, Australian cedar and hardwood, Phillips and Sons' fire-proof safes and strong room doors, Phillips and Sons' iron and brass-mounted bedsteads, and Tasmanian and Australian opossum and other fur carriage rugs and apparel. A large assortment of the goods comprised in these agencies is kept in stock, in addition to which the firm are importers of all classes of English furniture and novelties.

TRIGGS AND DENTON, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL SADDLERS AND BAG MANUFACTURERS, 77 MANCHESTER STREET, CHRISTCHURCH, AND LONDON STREET, LYTTTELTON.—To the tourist and traveller, the obtaining of requisites is of primary importance. Messrs. Triggs and Denton, the well-known bag and portmanteau makers, 77, Manchester Street, Christchurch, cater especially for their wants, and have obtained a wide reputation for the superior quality of the goods they manufacture. A visit to their establishment will show that articles equal to the best English can be made locally. Repairs are made a speciality.

TRIST AND SMALL, SADDLERS, 162 CASHEL STREET EAST, NEXT DOOR TO TATTERSALL'S REPOSITORY.—Keep the oldest established saddlery business in Christchurch. They stock every description of harness, saddlery, and trotting requisites, and can always make up Indian serge horse-clothing at the shortest notice, and in first-class style.

TRIST, ERNEST, FISHING TACKLE DEALER, CASHEL STREET WEST, CHRISTCHURCH.—Can supply the fisherman with rods, artificial bait, and tackle of all kinds on the shortest notice. A reference to illustration page—shows a basket grassed with Trist's tackle by three rods in one day from the Waitaki River on December 12th of last year.

TURNBULL AND JONES, MESSRS., LIMITED, ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS, OF CHRISTCHURCH, WELLINGTON, AND DUNEDIN.—Have recently purchased the central and convenient business site known as Turner's Buildings, situated at the corner of Cashel Street and Oxford Terrace. A large and attractive Showroom is fitted up with the latest electrical appliances and electrical work. The workshops are in the same buildings, which are fitted with machinery and modern appliances for all kinds of electrical and light engineering work.

BALLANTYNES ARE GENUINE LADIES' TAILORS.

Messrs. Turnbull and Jones Limited, have facilities in knowledge and experience unsurpassed by any other firm in New Zealand for electrical work, and at their branches in Christchurch, Dunedin, and Wellington carry the largest stocks in New Zealand, together with well trained staffs of workmen. They have special knowledge of Oil and Gas Engines, and their repair and improvement; also of Totalisator machines, of which they have supplied a considerable number throughout New Zealand. Messrs. Turnbull and Jones Limited, are the sole agents in New Zealand for the British and American Westinghouse Electrical Companies; also for Messrs. Waygoods' hoists and passengers' lifts, a complete set of the former has been supplied and fitted by them in Messrs. Levin and Co.'s new warehouse, Wellington. An electrical passenger lift was recently supplied and erected for the D.I.C., Christchurch. The firm are prepared to quote for, or indent, any electrical plant, machinery, and appliances of any magnitude.

"TUARIKI" LAUNCH.—16 horse power and twin screw, runs regularly between New Brighton and Sumner on Thursdays and Sundays, and affords a pleasant change from the monotony of a tramway journey. Tram passengers to New Brighton or Sumner can, on the above days, break the journey at either place, and enjoy a pleasant seven miles trip over the placid waters of the Avon and Heathcote Estuary, returning by the opposite tram route. Captain H. R. Walker is familiar with every twist and turn of the Estuary.

VOYCE, T. G., WATCHMAKER AND JEWELLER, 131 COLOMBO ST.—Can always be depended on for good workmanship, or for articles worth a bit more than their face value. He is a practical man, and can undertake any order.

WALKER, ROBERT B., LAND, ESTATE AND COMMISSION AGENT, 166 HEREFORD ST., CHRISTCHURCH.—Should be consulted by those who wish to rent, sell, or purchase a residence, land of every description, etc. All information free of charge. (See advertisement, page 212).

WALLACE AND CO., DISPENSING CHEMISTS, TRIANGLE, CHRISTCHURCH.—Keep a large stock of first-class drugs and chemicals, and make a specialty of accurately making up the prescriptions of medical men. This is one of the oldest chemist firms in Christchurch, and only deals in goods of the very highest quality. Telephone 881. The night bell will be answered at any hour.

BALLANTYNES MAKE SMART DAY & EVENING GOWNS.