

WARNER'S
COMMERCIAL HOTEL,
 CATHEDRAL SQUARE, CHRISTCHURCH.

This Hotel is Second to None in the Colony, extensive additions and alterations having been made.

THIS HOTEL IS NOW REplete WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE FOR FAMILIES
(Inclusive of Private Sitting Rooms),
 AND COMMERCIAL GENTLEMEN.

SAMPLE ROOMS.

The only House in Town where a Supply of ICE is kept throughout the whole of the Summer Months.

Bath Rooms—Hot, Cold, and Shower.

The Cuisine is under the supervision of an Eminent French Chef.

SPLendid BILLIARD SALOON, WITH THREE TABLES.

E. COOKSON (Late W. Radcliffe),
 PROPRIETOR.

Rotherfield Hotel,
 Cashel Street,
CHRISTCHURCH.

CHARLES DEAL,
 PROPRIETOR.

C. D. begs to inform his friends and the public of Christchurch and surrounding districts, that he has purchased the above Hotel, and trusts by supplying nothing but

ALES, WINES, AND SPIRITS OF THE BEST BRANDS,

To Ensure a Share of Public Patronage.

 MEALS AND BEDS

Good Stabling on the Premises