

"I SAY, GEORGE,"

Have you ever read 'Watt's on the Mind?' "Well, No. I usually study only what's on the back."
"I thought you dressed better of late."

WHO'S YOUR TAILOR?

Why,

G. I. MERRIE,

Of course.

He makes for me now; and do you know how it's done? I get three Suits a year for what two cost me before he came here. He made for me many years ago in Otago. Go to him, my Boy; you will get them done right, and, depend upon it, the BEST VALUE FOR YOUR MONEY IN CHRISTCHURCH."

"Where is his place?"

"HEREFORD STREET WEST,

NEAR LANE'S MILL."

"Thanks; I'll go at once."

J. ELLIASSON,

CABINETMAKER AND UPHOLSTERER,

LOWER LINCOLN ROAD,

ADDINGTON.
