

12. During the period any vessel may be in Quarantine, the Resident Magistrate and Health Officer shall visit her alongside from time to time and institute such regulations as the nature of the case may demand, and the Master or Commander shall carry such regulations into effect or forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Power to Resident Magistrate in certain cases.—The Resident Magistrate at any port for which no Harbor Master is appointed shall have all such powers as are hereinbefore given to Harbor Masters. All penalties hereby imposed shall be recoverable in a summary way.

SCHEDULE A.

Questions required to be answered by the Master or other person in command of any ship or vessel arriving in the Port of Lyttelton from any infected place.

1. What is the tonnage of the vessel and her name?—Answer.
2. What is the Master's name, and are you the Master?—Answer.
3. From whence do you come, and when did you sail?—Answer.
4. At what post have you touched on your passage?—Answer.
5. What vessel have you had intercourse or communication with on your passage and from whence did they come?—Answer.
6. Have you any, and what bills of health?—Answer.
7. Did the cholera or any other highly infectious and dangerous disease prevail at the place from which you sailed, or at any of the places at which you have touched, or on board of any vessel with which you have had communication; if so, state when or where?—Answer.
8. In the course of your voyage have any persons on board suffered from sickness of any kind? What was the nature of such sickness, and when did it prevail? How many persons were affected by it, and have any of them died in the course of the voyage?—Answer.
9. What number of Officers, Mariners, and Passengers have you on board?—Answer.
10. What was the number of persons on board your vessel when you sailed?—Answer.
11. What is the whole number of persons now ill on board your vessel?—Answer.
12. If there be no sickness now on board, when did the last attack of disease appear, and when did it entirely disappear?—Answer.
