

APPENDIX I.

The following naval arrangements have been made for the disembarkation of the main body:-

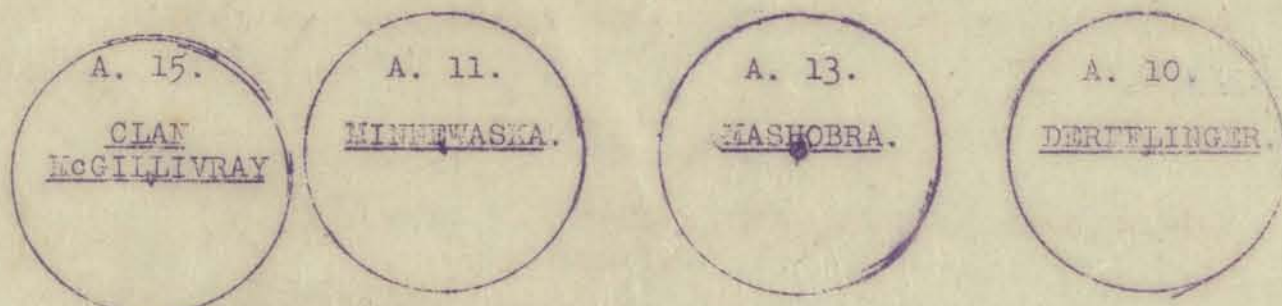

The transports will sail at intervals as ordered, and proceed to rendezvous determined by the Navy.

2. About 5 a.m. on the ..... four transports will enter the anchorage for disembarkation and berth as follows:-

The tows, which will comprise all boats which landed the first portion of the covering force from the battleships and any lifeboats from the transports themselves, will be in attendance, and will disembark the troops at once. The LAKE MICHIGAN will swing out her four horse-boats at once which will be taken under Naval arrangements to the HESSEN. Detail of disembarkation as in List of Tows with Military Transport Officer's

At the same hour, i.e. about 5 a.m., four transports as below will come up and remain under way some distance out, opposite the anchoring berths.

The seven torpedo boat destroyers, which were engaged in disembarking the second portion of the covering force, will come out and proceed - 1 to MASHOBRA, 2 to each of the others, and will each take 400 troops on board. Troops detailed for this trans-shipment are to be ready at 6 a.m.