

[Fricourt] 11 Sept.

My dear Bazel,

This might manage to get away today, though there are no definite mail arrangements. I am just writing a short note because it might be the last chance. If I am knocked out, don't worry about it, dear. It is a good life and a good death here. But I feel sure I am going to be lucky again, and I will get a commission if I come through this time. Thank you for all your goodness, dear. You have been a great help to me all through.

With very much love from Bevil.
