Foreword

“YOU are entitled to rejoice. The people of this country and the people of the Dominions, and of our Allies, have won such a victory for freedom as the world has never seen. You have all had a share in it. Sons and daughters of the people have done it, and this is their hour of rejoicing.” So the Prime Minister of England spoke to the people of London on the morning of November 11, 1918, the happiest morning in the history of Britain. The months that have passed have not effaced our memories of the joy that blazed up in the Dominion on that day, nor, although we have been living in peace during these months, will there be any reserves in our rejoicing over the formal confirmation of the victory of November.

New Zealand is entitled to rejoice, not as a neutral relieved from the embarrassments of war, but as a State which took its full part in the achievement of victory, as a nation whose sons need no longer go forth to death for the establishment of peace and freedom for our children. The peace we celebrate is not peace established merely through a return to the world-conditions that existed in 1914—conditions that exposed the world to the constant danger of war. It is peace based on the ruin of autocracies and the creation in their place of a system of real national responsibilities.

The statistics of New Zealand's effort in the provision of fighting men are such as this country may well be proud of. The number of men actually mobilised in camp for service in the Expeditionary Force overseas was 124,211, or one-ninth of the total population, one-half of the men of military age. Of these, 100,444 men were actually sent abroad on active service—an army more than three times as great as that which fought at Waterloo. Practically the whole of the population of military age was put through the recruiting machine—220,089 out of 243,376. From the beginning of the war until the end the Dominion maintained its supply of men, and there were actually in the field 24,000 men on the morning on which the Armistice was signed.

These are the men who performed New Zealand's part in winning the war. Most of them, happily, are with us or are returning home, but thousands of them will never return. On the peninsula of Gallipoli, the hills and plains of Palestine, the fields of France, and the flat lands of Flanders, there are New Zealand graves. New Zealanders lie buried in many a country in Europe and Asia. Our share in the victory cost us the lives of 16,386 men, and in the rejoicings of these days, and in all the days to come, New Zealand will remember these gallant dead.

While the men were fighting overseas, the spirit of service was strong here at home. The millions in money and goods which were given to the many War Funds did not make up the whole of the home service; to them must be added the devoted labour of innumerable public-spirited men and women. Their labours are now rewarded, and rewarded, above all, are the sacrifices of those who have suffered and died for us, those through whose fidelity to the common cause New Zealand has secured her title to rejoice over the signing of the peace.

Grateful and Immortal
Memory
of
Our Gallant Boys
Who died for their Country in the great War.

“Their Name Liveth for Evermore”

And in this day be not Wholly forgot
They that made possible but shall not see
Our solemn Jubilee.
Peace most to them that lie
Beneath unnative sky,
In whose still hearts is dipt
Our reconciling script:
Peace! But when shouts shall start the house-top bird
Let these, that speak not, be the loudest heard.

Peace Thanksgiving Service

IN THE KING EDWARD BARRACKS.

His Lordship the Bishop of Christchurch will preside.

ORDER OF SERVICE:

1.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

God Save our Gracious King:
Long Live our Noble King:
God Save the King.
Send him Victorious,
Happy and Glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Thy choicest gifts in store,
On him be pleased to pour:
Long may He reign.
May He defend our laws
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God Save the King.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all our mercies, we give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving kindness to us. We beseech Thee give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in Holiness and Righteousness all our days.

We confess our entire dependence on Thee, who art the Giver of all good things. Especially at this time do we humbly acknowledge that Thou art a strong tower of defence unto Thy Servants against the face of their enemies. We yield Thee praise and thanksgiving for the deliverance from those great and manifest dangers with which we were compassed. We acknowledge that it is of Thy goodness that we have not been overcome by the forces that came against us; and we praise and magnify Thee for the victory and the peace which Thou hast given us.

We pray Thee, O Lord, to remember with tender pity those for whom the joy of victory and thanksgiving is mingled with sorrow. Grant to those who mourn the loss of loved ones the comfort and assurance that their sacrifice has not been in vain. To those also who have suffered bodily injuries grant Thy blessing and healing power.

We acknowledge, O Lord, that Thou art a great King over all the earth, and that only by Thy power can the kingdoms of the earth be established, and that the power and greatness of our nation are the gifts of Thy gracious hand. We pray that by Thy grace we may accept them as a sacred trust, and may use them so that truth and righteousness and love may increase and abound in our nation and through all the earth. We beseech Thee in Thy great goodness grant that the conflicts through which Thou hast brought us may be a purging fire cleansing the life of our nation, that we may be truly penitent for our manifold sins, and that we may henceforth yield ourselves to Thee in true obedience to Thy commandments. We earnestly pray that the spirit of brotherhood and good will may prevail among us and all the peoples of the earth and that we may always live in prosperity to the honour and glory of Thy great name. We beseech Thee evermore to continue Thy mercy toward us, that all the world may know Thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father which art in Heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread: And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us: And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

HYMN—"All People That on Earth Do Dwell."

1. All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.
2. The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid he did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed;
And for His sheep He doth us take.
3. O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His Courts unto;
Praise, laud and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
4. For why? the Lord our God is Good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

4.

SCRIPTURE LESSON: PSALM 124.

If it had not been the Lord Who was on our side, now may Israel say;
If it had not been the Lord Who was on our side, when men rose up against us;
Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us;
Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:
Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.
Blessed be the Lord, Who hath not give us as a prey to their teeth.
Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken and we are escaped.
Our help is in the name of the Lord Who made Heaven and Earth.

5.

JACKSON'S "TE DEUM."

6.

ADDRESS BY HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP JULIUS.

7. HYMN—'O God Our Help.'

1. O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.
2. Under the shadow of Thy Throne,
Still may we dwell secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
3. Before the hills in order stood
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.
4. A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.
5. The busy tribes of flesh and blood,
With all their cares and fears,
Are carried downward by the flood,
And lost in following years.
6. Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
7. O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last,
And our perpetual Home.

8. ADDRESS BY REV. DR. ERWIN.9. FUNERAL MARCH: Specially composed for the occasion by Mr. Alfred Worsley, A.R.C.M.10. HYMN—'God of Our Fathers.'

1. God of our fathers, known of old—
Lord of our far-flung battle-line—
Beneath whose awful Hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine—
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget.

2. The tumult and the shouting dies—
The captains and the kings depart;
Still stands Thine ancient Sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!
3. Far-called our navies melt away—
On dune and headland sinks the fire—
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
Judge of the nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget.
4. If, drunk with the sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe—
Such boasting as the Gentiles use
Or lesser breeds without the law—
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!
5. For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard—
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard—
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord.

11. ADDRESS.—Mr L. M. Isitt, M.P.12. 'Hallelujah Chorus.'13. Benediction.14. Doxology.
